It can be contacted via its consumer helpline on 0300 123 9 123 (8am to 6pm, Monday to Friday) or by e-mail at complaint.info@financial-ombudsman.org.uk.

If you make a complaint to the FOS your right to legal action against us is not affected.

Information you must tell us

In deciding to accept this insurance and in setting the terms and premium, we have relied on the information you have given us. You must take reasonable care to provide complete and accurate answers to the questions we ask when you take out and make changes to your policy.

Change in circumstance

You must tell us as soon as possible about any changes in the information you have provided to us which happens before or during any period of insurance. We will tell you if such change affects your insurance and if so, whether the change will result in revised terms and/or premium being applied to your policy. If you do not inform us about a change it may affect any claim you make or could result in your insurance being invalid.

Financial Services Compensation Scheme

Insurers are covered by the financial services compensation scheme. You may be entitled to compensation from the scheme if insurers are unable to meet their obligations to you under this policy. If you were entitled to compensation under the scheme, the level and extent of the compensation would depend on the nature of this policy. Further information about the scheme is available from the financial services compensation scheme (7th floor Lloyd's Chambers, Portsoken Street, London E1 8BN) and on their website:

www.fscs.org.uk

Law and Jurisdiction

Unless some other law is agreed in writing, this Policy is subject to English Law, and to the exclusive jurisdiction of the High Courts of England and Wales.
